

2021 Africa Forum

Jesus Mantas- Senior Managing Partner, IBM Independent Director, Biogen Inc.

Jesus Mantas is the Senior Managing Partner responsible for Strategy, Innovation and Corporate Development for IBM Global Business Services. Prior to this he led IBM Business Consulting, IBM Global Process Services, and IBM GBS Latin America. Before IBM, he was a Partner in the High Technology practice of PricewaterhouseCoopers Consulting.

He is recognized for his track record predicting trends, leading change to seize them, bridging cultures, developing leaders, and delivering sustained business growth at scale.

He looks at the world from a profound empathy viewpoint, combines business and technology, science and art, process and talent, to lead teams and organizations towards higher value and relevance. He is the emeritus chair of IBM's Hispanic Diversity Council, an Independent Director of Biogen Inc., a board member of HITEC and active member of the World Economic Forum's Global AI Council.

Jesus holds degrees in Telecommunications, Software Engineering, and Business, was a professor at University of California, Irvine Graduate School of Management and served as officer in the Air Force of Spain.

